

From: Dan Wessol
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 12/6/01 3:54pm
Subject: Microsoft settlement

If Microsoft has been found in violation of the anti trust provisions of the US statutes then the "rule of law" must be applied(fairly) as it has in previous case history. Additionally it would seem reasonable that GSA procurement of ADP should require interoperability of all software applications. This would greatly benefit both the industry and the consumer and would discourage future violations of the anti trust laws in this domain.

--

Dan Wessol

INEEL-Montana State University	EMAIL => wessol@cs.montana.edu
357 EPS Bldg / CS Dept	VOICE => (406) 994-3707
Bozeman, MT 59717	FAX => (406) 994-4376
